Old Business:

Flight of the Falcon II - Maeve - We need to choose between the main hall and the small hall. It will be a Highness Progress, and possibly also a Royal Event. Talorgen- What is the monetary difference between the two halls? Jonathan – We risking a difference between the two is $200. The breakeven attendance for the main hall is 53 people. The big hall is air conditioned.

Motion- Susanna, Tal -Second, we use the big hall, no dissenting vote. Application will be sent off this week needs check this week.

Classes – we are requesting officer classes, especially chatelaine. Katheryne volunteered to do a tea at Flight of the Falcon.

New Business:

Meeting next month...where do we want it to be? Jonathan recommends main library on Garrison. Maeve – should we try it at the library for 3 months to see if attendance picks back up if it doesn't we move it back? Talorgen - if more people will attend then moving it is a good thing. We pay can pay for the library out of the treasury. Maeve will make the reservations. Talorgen moves that we adjourn. Allegranza seconds. No opposing votes.
